Lisnaclaya Mass at Scalan

Last Wednesday evening's Mass was well attended, with more than 150 men, women and children present, blessed with a drop of rain on what was otherwise a warm summer's evening and followed by a real feast from Meehan's Mobile Kitchen. The Scalan is located in an idyllic spot and there was hardly a midge in sight.
We are grateful to John and Joan Greenlaw for their welcome and for the preparations they made along with their formidable team of helpers.

Our thanks to the Mass Rock Team, comprising of Johnny Paul McGuinness, James Gavigan, Hubert Breslin, Seamus Gillespie and Charlie Boyle and our thanks to Patrick Boyle & Betty for their meticulous work on the Scalan and putting the plaque in place.
Our thanks to those who did the readings & prayers, the Ministers of the Eucharist, singer Fred Smith, leaflet-distributors Ferdia, Senan and Conor and to O'Keeney's for the transport. As always Matty & Plunkett kept a visual and audio record of the proceedings which we appreciate. And when Mass was finished and the rain disappeared, there was a feast with plenty of scrumptious home baking which added greatly to the sense of togetherness and friendship.
Sincere thanks to the whole kitchen team.

Our Season of Pilgrimages 2013 will conclude with Mass at St Catherine's Well on Wed 21st August 7pm.

Blessing of the Fleet Mass
