Stressed

Lord, I don't feel so good.
I don't feel right.
Pressure is one thing.
There is pressure all the time- to perform, to deliver, to be successful. But this is different.
This is a tightness in my chest, a sudden, rising panic.
This is a night without sleep.
This is tearful, this is stress.
I am at the far end of my resources and need help.

My child,
know that you are loved.
Rest in me awhile, lay down your burden.
I know stress, too. I know anguish.
I know what it's like to beg that the cup will be taken away.
I have been to the worst places that you inhabit;
in your most lonely darkness,
in your Gethsemane,
you'll find me there.
