every human life is beautiful,
every human life is sacred.
Choose life!

(statement by the Catholic Bishops of Ireland, June 2013)

Mass at Ballysallagh Mass Rock
on Wednesday week 26th June 7pm.

Mass at Meenahooghan Mass Rock

Last Wednesday's Mass was a memorable occasion. The view from the Mass Rock is breath-taking, with a clear view of four other counties: Mayo, Sligo, Leitrim and Fermanagh. Over 110 people attended, while others spent an hour's Adoration in the Church.

The temperature dropped but the rain stayed away. Our sincere thanks to PJ and Ann Blaine for their great welcome and to the Blaine family and Meehan family for their novel transport system and for all their help and to everyone who helped in any way.

History of Mass Rocks

'Oh, it was indeed a sore trial for our grandfathers to have to rise in the dead hour of the night, and issue forth, like people on some guilty errand, by devious paths, against wind and rain, to hear Mass in some lonely mountain recess.'

(Bishop James McDevitt, Bishop of Raphoe 1871-1879)
