Who am I?

After a disturbing dream

My child,
You are not your dreams.
You are not your moods.
You are not your thoughts.

You are not your 'likes'.
You are not your followers.
You are not your friends.

You are not what others see,
or say,
or think.

You are not your grades.
You are not your personal best.
You are not your salary.

You are not your data.
You are not your body measurements.
You are not your looks.

You are so much more.
Your deepest you
is beauty beyond comprehension.

You are a temple
where I am pleased to dwell.
If you open the door.

'At Your Side' Raymond Friel, David Wells
