A Blessing

May you be blessed in the holy names of those who carry our pain up the mountain of transfiguration.

May you know tender shelter and healing blessing when you are called to stand in the place of pain.

May the places of darkness within you be surprised by light.

May you be granted the wisdom to avoid false resistance and when suffering knocks
on the door of your life,
may you be able to glimpse its hidden gift.

May you be able to see the fruits of suffering.
May memory bless and shelter you with the hard-earned light of past travail, may this give you confidence and trust.

May a window of light always surprise you.
May the grace of transfiguration heal your wounds.

May you know that even though the storm might rage not a hair of your head will be harmed.

John O'Donohue

About Prayer

It's about humility, not merit.
It's about honesty, not best behaviour.
It's about the heart, not the head.
It's about faith, not certainty.
It's about simplicity, not complexity.
It's about friendship, not fear.
It's about intimacy, not distance.
It's about community, not just me.
It's about routine, not whenever.
It's about changing your mind, not God's.
It's about what we undergo, not what we do.
It's about being called into being.
It's about being loved.
And, being loved, loving others, loving the world...
