The 'Murillo' Painting

The Holy Family Painting, presented to the church by landlord Alexander Murray in 1844, and stored in the church tower when the church ceiling was being replaced in 1936, has been under restoration in London since June 2011. There is a photograph of its current state of restoration at Our Lady's Altar. We would hope to have it back in the church in the New Year. Anyone willing to offer sponsorship for its restoration, please contact Fr Colm.
