In the Middle of the Day

Lord, I need a moment,

I need a time out

to remember your presence deep within me, within the good earth,

within my very desire to take a moment.

Help me to be silent and still,

to settle again into the now, the only place I will ever find you.

Help me to keep the business of the day in some kind of perspective; to remember that, whatever happens, this too will pass.

Help me with the anxieties that are always there, like a headache-the loved ones I worry about, the work pressures that sometimes overwhelm me, the colleagues I don't get on with.

Help me to be loving and thoughtful, to listen when I need to,

to be present to those in front of me, to be brave when I need to be brave and to sense your presence in all my encounters.

At your Side, Raymond Friel & David Wells
