Blessed John Henry Newman 1801 - 1890

His feast day is 9th October. He will be canonised next Sunday by Pope Francis. He was an Anglican priest who later became a Catholic priest. A renowned theologian, educator and poet, he was appointed a Cardinal in 1879 for his services to the Catholic Church in England. He had strong links with Ireland, being instrumental in establishing the Catholic University of Ireland in 1854 which in time evolved into University College Dublin, today the largest university in this country.

Uganda Collection

There will be a special collection at all Masses next weekend (after Communion) in aid of the St Francis Family Helper Programme in Uganda. They provide education for children who are most in need and support their families. They see education as the main catalyst for change in a country which has experienced a lot of suffering and increased poverty. Mary Moran, originally from Laghey, has spent the past fifty years working as a missionary there and we ask you to support her and the various Ugandan projects she is engaged in.
